DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-23 and 78-79, drawn to a dosage form comprising a thyroid hormone prepared under conditions of low compression, classified in class 424, subclass 464.
 - II. Claims 24-70 and 80-87, drawn to a dosage form comprising a thyroid hormone admixed with a substantially non-volatile, pharmaceutically acceptable oil, classified in class 424, subclass 451.
 - III. Claims 71-77 and 88-89, drawn to a dosage form comprising a thyroid hormone and a hydrophobic powder, classified in class 424, subclass 464.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation. Group I avoids moisture induced degradation through preparation under low compression and Group II avoids moisture induced degradation through incorporation of oil.
3. Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation. Group I avoids moisture induced degradation through preparation under low compression and Group III avoids moisture induced degradation through incorporation of hydrophobic powder.

4. Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation. Group II avoids moisture induced degradation through incorporation of oil and Group III avoids moisture induced degradation through incorporation of hydrophobic powder.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, nor is the search for Group I required for Group III, and nor is the search for Group II required for Group III restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
